STORIES FROM TRAINING

Our missionaries share how God has been moving in their hearts through NET training.

STORIES FROM TRAINING

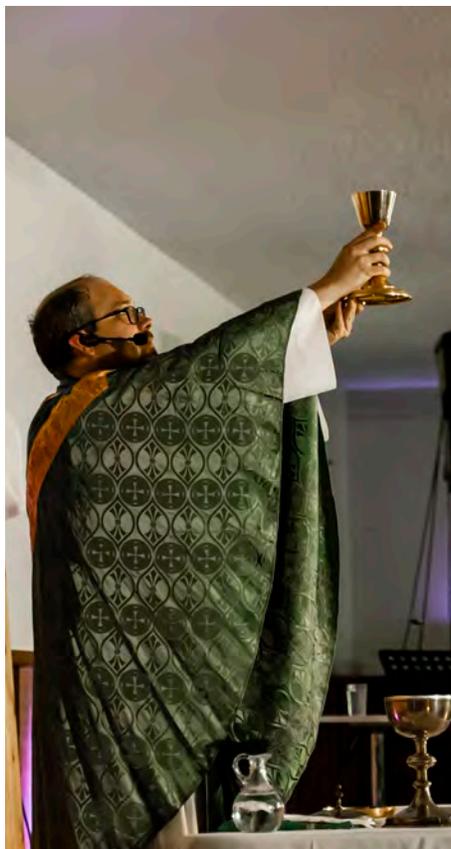

The biggest takeaway from training for me has been comprehending Jesus's presence in the Eucharist. We've had some amazing talks about the Eucharist and heard some people's stories and testimonies. I had never really thought about it a ton, but it's just unveiled itself in a whole new way to me. One day we had a talk on the Eucharist right before going into mass – it helped the mass feel so much more full to me.

That experience has improved my relationship with God in so many little ways. I've especially noticed it in prayer. In the mass we get to consume Him, I get to be so close to Him, and that carries on into my day to day life. Now, looking around at all the other missionaries, I know God is in them and He'll be in the youth we encounter. It's brought out this passion for loving my neighbor.

Jaqueline Ceron (London, ON)

It has been fruitful, emotional, and tough. Coming to terms with a lot of things from my past that I need to reconcile with. Also just coming to accept the love of God in my life. For a long time I thought that I wasn't allowed to accept love from other people. I thought men needed to be hard and strict, and emotions weren't applicable.

I've learned how to properly love my sisters and my brothers as a man. Not just showing it, but meaning it. I always tried to be charitable, but now when I try to be charitable it comes from a real place in my heart of knowing and recognizing the needs of the other person.

Training has been super chaotic, but super fruitful. A lot of growth has happened in the past two weeks, and I've definitely been growing both personally and in my faith. Forming a personal relationship with Jesus at training has been so beautiful. I never really got taught how to have a relationship with him growing up.

My faith was more habitual, a routine, but now it's coming to life.

I'm learning that my identity is in the Lord. Before, I always placed my identity in others and what they thought of me, but I'm a daughter of the king and that's where my identity lies. It doesn't matter what I do, what I say, or what I've done in the past. I'll always have that understanding that my identity is in him and I'm his true daughter and loved by Him.
